EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES POLICY

At UCL our principle concern when considering applications is to recruit and select students who are likely to complete the programme successfully and derive benefit from it. Once these requirements are met, we regard other issues such as disability, ethnic origin, sex, marital status, number of children, beliefs relating to religion, politics and sexual orientation as irrelevant.

STUDENT DECLARATION

UCL SERAus is bound by the Australian (Commonwealth) Privacy Act (1988), which regulates the way in which personal information is collected, used and disclosed. I agree to UCL SERAus processing personal data contained in this application, or other data which UCL SERAus may obtain from me or other people or organisations while I am applying for admission. I agree to the processing and disclosure of such data for any purpose connected with my studies, or my health and safety while on UCL SERAus premises or for any other legitimate purpose, including the compilation of statutory statistical returns that UCL SERAus is obliged to make in Australia and the UK to Commonwealth and State agencies and, if relevant, the ESOS Assurance Fund and Tuition Assurance Scheme.
